

A PERSONAL MESSAGE: FLASH::: The next radio convention sponsored by SAVE is October 3rd and 4th at the Sheratin Park Plaza in New Haven, Conn. Details are on the flyer. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Dealer tables are $25.00. Display tables are free. Reservations must be in by September 30th. For information on room rates at the Park Plaza call 1-800-325 3535 (toll free) between 9 and 5. State that you are going to be with the convention... Sorry about the second page many of you got last month. I ran out of my regular stock and had to finish on #16 weight paper... If I mention a person more than once in an issue I only mention his address the first time... After 6 years of my original 2 tape recorders, I had to invest in 2 more to replace them. My apologies to those recent trades in which some shows were off-speed... Whenever you send anyone a SASE, send a legal-sized one, especially for lists, logs, newsletters, etc.

IN FOND MEMORY: Dora McGann, 66, Aug 14th; She, with her husband Alfred McGann Jr, co-hosted the WOR show THE MCGANNS AT HOME from 1931 until last November... Mrs. Jo Bellairs, 57, Aug 22; She and her husband Mel were radio personalities in the Chicago area. They owned WIVS-Am and WXRd-FM. WIVS was one of the pioneers in the area of re-broadcasting oldtime radio shows, starting in November, 1969... Thomas Gibbs, 70; musician with Ted Veeas Orch and producer of Dave Garroway radio show. He was also producer and director of Monitor... Bernard Green, 66, Aug 8; Composer, conductor and arranger; Directed music on TV for Sid Caesar, UNITED STATES STEEL HOUR, GARRY MOORE SHOW; Also musical director on radio for HENRY MORGAN. Composed theme music for THE FAT MAN.

PUBLICATIONS, ACTIVITIES, GROUPS: New book I recommend is "The Son that Rose in the West" by Jim "Red Ryder" Bannon. Roy Bright has 50 of the books which he is selling for Jim for $5.00. Book covers Jim's radio and movie career. Write Roy Bright, 314 North 7th St, Wyoming, Ill 61491... Dave Howe, Box 823, N3GA Hanza, Torii Station, Ato San Fran, Cal 96331 is still looking for material for his Lone Ranger project, which when finished, will be the most extensive ever done. Dave still has a few of the Lone Ranger (John Hart) and Fat Man pictures left for $1.00 each. Dave is willing to trade his transcriptions for Lone Ranger material including comics, novels, BLB, and some premiums. The discs are 12" inch ones and include BROADWAY IS MY BEAT, BOB HOPE, JOHNNY DOLLAR, WEIRD CIRCLE, YOU ARE THERE, 21st PRECINCT. I read in the paper of a nostalgia convention held in New York City over Labor Day. I knew nothing about this and would have liked to go and also let you know about it. If any of you know of conventions, etc. please let me know... Old Time Radio is alive and well at Sobossek's, 35 Cooper Sq, New York City. Every Wednesday at 10:00pm Ms. B J Bohack with other professional actors perform original scripts of your favorite shows.

CATALOGS: Joseph Webb, 5 Valley View Dr, Yonkers, NY 10710; sup #1; mysteries and detectives...Herb Sadowsky, 105-25 65th Ave, Forest Hills, NY 11375; latest supplement...

LOGS: Roy Bright, mentioned earlier, has 30 ESCAPE logs left. They are $3.95...Ray Stanich's latest log; TV...The UNEXPECTED 4/52-3/53. Send a SASE to 173 Columbia Hts, Brooklyn, NY 11201...Jerry Graham, 900 Elmwood, Wilmette, Ill 60091 has had to increase his loggings of circulating mystery and adventure programs to $4.00. This is a computerized printout of available mystery shows with correct dates where known.

THE TAPE DECK. Bob Davis, 1144 Lovejoy St, Buffalo, NY 14206 would like to know how to get bassy-ness or hum out of a tape. Apparently a blank tape can remain all right indefinitely if stored properly. Walter Keepers has a paper tape which he still records on. ...If anyone is interested in building a speed control unit which will slow or speed up the tape write Tom Williamson, 3801 Inca NE, Albuquerque, NM 87111.

MAILING: The package that you mail your tape in (not the tape box) should be wrapped securely. Packaging tape is fine. If it is unclear how to open the package indicate on the outside. In this way the package can be reused.

LET THE BUYER BEWARE. I have still had complaints about The Best of Radio (TBOR) in New York. Does anyone have any additional information about them. Mike and Fran Curran run it.

Currently it is heard on 140 stations in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Char Cosgrove recently lost her husband. Understandably her life is in a turmoil. On Sep 15th her address will be 4831 Yucca Way, No Highlands, Cal 95660. She will not be trading for a while and doesn't trade on cassette at all-just reel recorders. I'm sure she would appreciate hearing from her friends.

For my special topic next week I am going to list all radio-related books printed from 1974. Send in all titles you have with authors, cost and publishers...See you all at the convention.

Hang by your thumbs and write if you get work.
